

Edinburgh Campus Loretto School

Set in 85 acres of leafy campus just outside Edinburgh, Loretto School is a distinguished boarding school, set in the heart of Scotland.

This Scottish independent school has accommodation for up to 250 students. The School is set in an historical campus in the small coastal town of Musselburgh close to Scotland's capital city, Edinburgh. Students benefit from the beautiful campus and its location on the edge of Edinburgh, with the city centre attractions only a short bus ride away. The accessible location ensures we can offer an excellent activities programme for all students to enjoy.

The picturesque campus offers residences, excellent indoor and outdoor sports facilities, catering, classrooms, computer rooms, a cinema and student common rooms all within a secure gated environment.
